You will get no bill like this if you have an office in the PULITZER BUILDING. The rent, although moderate, covers heating, cleaning and electric-lighting. There are no extras.

In spite of the rain during the past eight days the Superintendent has been kept busy showing the offices, and a halfdozen have been rented since the modern flood began. As soon as the weather becomes clear again, if it ever does, there will be a rush, and if you want rooms it is well not to delay. Over one-quarter are already let.

Address, or apply personally to, the Superintendent on the premises, forenoons, between 8 and 12 (3d floor, room 8).
